

Laws on Girls

By Anuj Anand

Life on the planet is born of woman....

Girls and You

- You love them or don't love them, You like them or you don't like them, hate them or you don't hate them, But Always respect Them

➤ Girls are always good and nice, the only thing is that you should know, how to deal with them.

- Never live to impress a girl, they are smart, they will find out the truth and you are out of the game.

- Whenever with a girl, never behave someone else, just be yourself. Girls love truthful people

- Whenever you speak to a girl look in her eyes and speak, give her full attention, girls like being paid attention and respect.

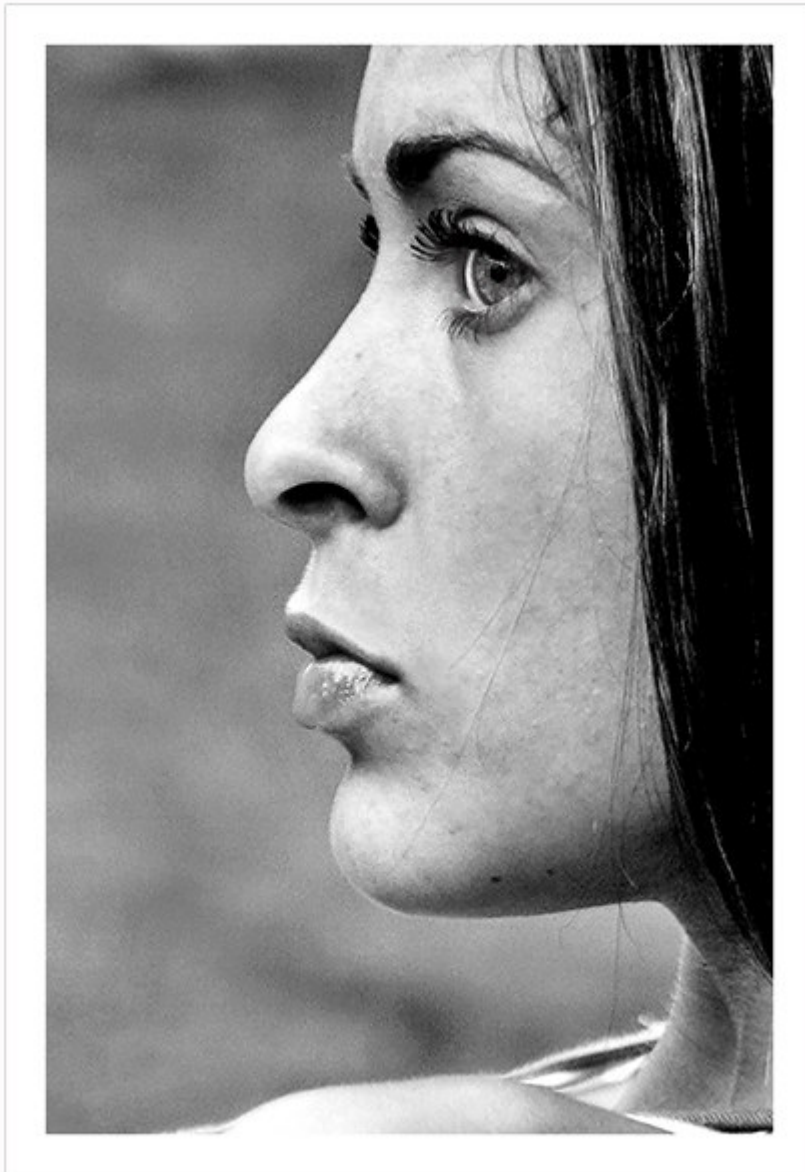

- Help them as much as you can without expecting back anything from them. Trust me they will be your best friends for life.

- Never argue with girls, they always have something in their mind, when they argue, which has an element of emotion, which we boys don't have.

- Always hear a girl with patience, first and then express your views, never cut her when she is speaking, the worst habit and a grave mistake.

- Never be late, whenever you meeting a girl, be more than just being punctual

- In a fight, never shout on her in public. She has a public image, which is more important to her than we boys have. They are very sensitive to such things.

- Boys run after beautiful faces, Trust me, all girls are beautiful in one aspect or the other. You should be smart in catch their beauty.

- Once a girl has decided to do something, very rarely will she not do that, hence no- advice will change her. Let her do it, Good or Bad, let her learn the hard way. Being over protective to them doesn't help always.

- When a girl trusts you, she will allow you to take a lead in the relationship, never break that trust. Trust is meant to be kept, honored, not to be broken.

- Every girl in this world, has some soft side, no matter, how much they try to avoid it, You should be smart to find out.

- The most important feature on the face of the girls is her eyes. These eyes say everything, no matter how much they try to hide themselves and project themselves as different person, these eyes speak volumes of them.

- If the skin of the face is soft texture, it means that she is innocent at heart, but if it has rough texture with deep pores, then she is a really a hard, tough and will not easily trust you, but if she fall for you. Trust me you are winner, because she will just stand in front of all troubles and rest assured your life is at ease.

- The bible of the all rules, always mark your words, when speaking to girls.

- Always give them space to live; they will love you for that.

- Give them their due, when they support you. Trust me you have won them as friends for life.

- The last not the least, Best Friends, Worst enemies. If they like you, they will support you always, but If they hate you, God only can save you.

- Finally, If boys are good, girls are the best, since they all will be moms soon or later And Moms are just Terrific.

GOD BLESS U ALL
