‘YOU ARE ALWAYS RIGHT MY DARLING - LAWS ON GIRLS –REVISITED’

“I had written the first set of Laws on Girls in 2006, while waiting for my flight at Hong Kong Airport and to my surprise when I compiled it in a coffee table book it was well received by people.

Well that was the year 2006, and we are now in 2009. As time moves on, so we keep growing up, the same apply to my thoughts. Hence I decide to add few more new rules to my existing

Hence named it as

YOU ARE ALWAYS RIGHT MY DARLING LAWS ON GIRLS –REVISITED

A few things I would like to share with you all, over a period of last few years, have interacted with a lots of girls, in a plain, simple, plutonic friendship and have tried to understand them and their views about the world, men and their behavior, actually it was something like an insight into life from the perception of girls.

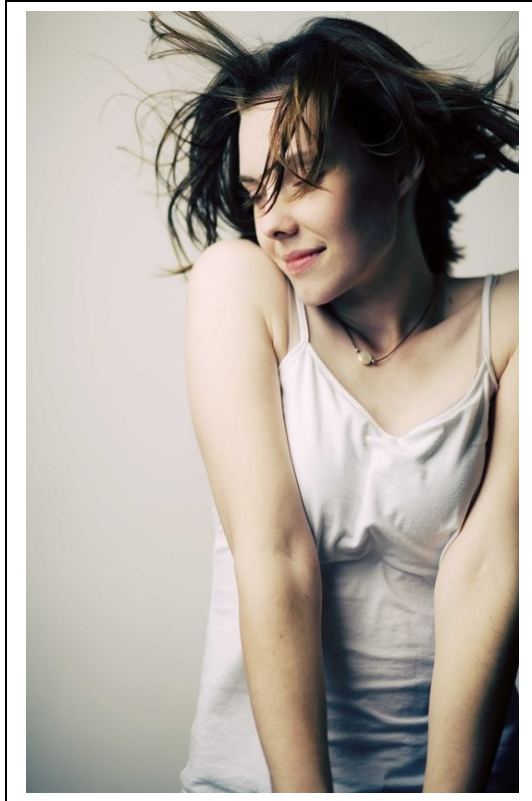

This book is nothing more than, the thoughts and views that I could put down in black and white, from my understanding about their perceptions and views.

Off late, one thing still rattles my mind is that, I am still perplexed, whether I have done a good job or not, while putting these thoughts, but one thing I could vouch for is that of all the coffee tables books that I have written this one is very close to my heart, since it has inspired me to be a better human being.

*My personal thanks to Sudha Nair for edits and spending, some time for this book, from their busy and hectic schedule with her darling daughter
Anaya Menon.

Try to understand their feelings.

Girls are actually very simple, we boys make them complicated.

Listen to them, very attentively and let them complete whatever they say, before you start.

If you have to advise a girl, it should always be in bits, never bombard them with lot of advice, it will definitely be ignored

Keep it simple stupid. - KISS Principle

Avoid judging them in the first take, because you are bound to change your perception about them later.

No matter, how much they hide, they can never hide anything, and eventually they will speak out.

Their eyes have always something to say.

If you promise to help them, help them without anything in return, trust me, they will become your friends for life.

If the girl is innocent, she will always get help from unknown quarters, but if she is cunning, then she will surely run out of help soon.

If she is out to play a trick, then just wait and watch her, the trick can give the best professional a run for their money

There are no beautiful girls, there are some really beautiful souls, find and hold them forever, if you can.

Girls need a lot of emotional support, hence boys should be ready for this and Trust me, and it requires a lot of patience.

Never get in an argument with them, since it will turn into an ego game and more problem start.

The best relationship with any girls is simple, plain, honest and plutonic friendship.

I don't say that all girls are good, but no matter how bad she is, the best way to fight a girl is to go silent and walk down a different path. For sure an angry woman always likes to be ignored.

Journey into a Women's Heart - Anuj's way

The world says that the journey to the moon is simpler compare to the journey into a woman's heart. But I would like to re-iterate that the journey to a woman heart is very simple, but you should follow a few rules.

1. Girls will always looks for simple, caring, intellectual and smart Alex , not boys , who die to impress girls, by their stupid histrionics

2. Girls need a lot of pampering.

3. Never change any one, this is one of the biggest mistakes men and women do in a relationship, they are out to change the other person, which is virtually not possible, since you can change one's habit , but how do you change one's character, which has been built over the period of time.

4. Girls would at time like to lead the relationship, just to test we men , whether we would support them or not, the moment we offer support, the game will tilt in our balance and they would like us to lead the way. Hence constructive patience is the global mantra for success.

5. In any relation it's always talked about as (you and me), but we miss that word 'us'. The growth and success of any relationship; is all about US.

6. Love them as if Tomorrow you won't be alive, that is most important principle, because every woman wants' her man to love her without any limits.

Finally, I had written in my previous book "Laws on Girls" Boys are good; girls are the best, since they all will be moms soon or later and Moms are just Terrific.

This time would like add that Boys live for themselves, Girls live for Boys and this is the hard and honest truth of life, since Mom lives for her Kids.

And Moms are just Moms- Just Perfect

Hence the ultimate Conclusion is:

YOU ARE ALWAYS RIGHT MY DARLING: MOM

From this son to all mom's in the World and this is undisputed Global Truth

GOD BLESS U AND REMAIN BLESSED

About the book

I started the book in June 2008 & neared towards completion somewhere November 2008.

Was working on the edits along with NVC Bhaskar in London, when this book was lost somewhere in a long mail chain, after 7 months was able to recover it.

Completed the edits with help of Sudha, although we both had a set of arguments on a few statements in the book, but mutually agreed later.

And what a co-incidence, that the day the book is being released (14th Sept 2009) is the birthday of my best friend Ajay Menon and one of my cousin brother Anuj Bhatia

WISHING YOU A VERY HAPPY BIRTHDAY.
HAVE A REALLY CHEERFUL YEAR AHEAD 2009-2010
